

ENVIRONMENTAL INSIGHTS.. ISSUE 32

The CIP Environmental Insight is a bimonthly update of what's happening around the environmental agenda within the built environment. It's free and open to everyone. Some content is only available to subscribers of the CIP Environmental Manual and CIP Knowledge.

GRAHAM achieves global carbon management standard PAS 2080

CIP customer GRAHAM has achieved PAS 2080 verification, the globally recognised standard for managing carbon in buildings and infrastructure.

READ MORE

Six civils clients to switch to low carbon concrete and steel

Six big infrastructure clients have pledged to switch to lowest carbon-sourced concrete and steel on their projects.

READ MORE

Against the grain: Britain's timber construction must grow to save emissions

Writing in the Environment Journal on 18th April Martin Guttridge-Hewitt explores the potential of wooden structures to reduce carbon footprints, and asks if a new UK roadmap can finally unlock the material's potential to drive net zero development.

READ MORE

Radix Screw Piles Innovation Recognised With Leading Sustainability Awards Win

Scottish firm RADIX won the edie Award for Product/Packaging Innovation of the Year 2024, for their Screw Piles and Ground Screws with judges hailing its potential to limit the impacts of construction on climate and nature.

READ MORE

Gatwick Airport's new geospatial platform supports Biodiversity Action Plan

London Gatwick Airport (LGW) has created a new geospatial platform using Esri's GIS (Geographic Information System) technology.

READ MORE

New Net Zero Standard to create consistency

Have you ever wondered when a Building claims to be Net Zero what standard and definition they are using and how that compares to the 15 standards all tacking different aspects of the same thing. Reported in Building last week, David Partridge has been tasked with bringing together construction's many and varied definitions of net zero.

READ MORE

If you have any queries regarding these stories or products please email sales@cip-books.com.

